

Atlantic Society of Fish & Wildlife Biologists Annual Spring Seminar – 18 April 2012

Crabtree Auditorium Mt. Allison
University, Sackville, NB

Integrated Resource / Ecosystem Management

- 0930 Registration opens
- 1000 Welcome and announcements
- 1010 Kate MacQuarrie, Director, Forests Fish and Wildlife, Prince Edward Island Department of Agriculture and Forestry. Integrated Resource Management: Chasing a Rainbow?
- 1040 Erich Muntz, Project Manager - Reducing Human / Coyote Conflict, Cape Breton Highlands National Park of Canada. Reducing Human/Coyote Conflict - Integration of Behavioural Ecology and Human Dimensions In Wildlife
- 1110 Bruce Stewart, Forest Ecologist, Ecosystem Management group, Nova Scotia Department of Natural Resources. Implementing Integrated Land Use in Nova Scotia
- 1140 Eric Tremblay, Ecosystem Scientist, Kouchibouguac National Park. Integrated management: The case of Brown Spruce Longhorn Beetle (Tetropium fuscum) in Kouchibouguac National Park-an uninvited guest !
- 1210 lunch
- 1300 Announcements
- 1310 Jon Hutchinson, Manager of Public Lands, Forests Fish and Wildlife, Prince Edward Island Department of Agriculture and Forestry. Ecosystem Forest Management, Agreements and Certification the Island Way?
- 1340 Kirby Tulk, Ecosystem Scientist, Terra Nova National Park. Managing Hyperabundant Moose in Terra Nova National Park

- 1410 Steve Gordon, Manager Natural Resources – Habitat, New Brunswick
Department of Natural Resources. Integrated Resource Management on Crown Lands in New Brunswick
- 1440 Sherman Boates, Wildlife Manager - Biodiversity, Nova Scotia
Department of Natural Resources. *Ecosystem approaches to management:
Putting IRM in Context*
- 1510 wrap up and departure