May Day Multigenerational Service

Carolyn Humphries, Louise Malloch, Nora Malloch, Susan White

Celebrate the creative force of life-warming soil, budding trees, singing birds with music and movement and colour.

May 10

My Two Mothers

Rev. Julie Denny-Hughes; Service Assistant: Colleen Ashworth

This is the story of the two remarkable women who formed me. We will honour the happy and difficult aspects of this holiday – the triumphs and the grief. Bring a photo (with a label, please) of your mother or grandmother and/or a photo of yourself as a mother. We'll display these photos on a table in the ballroom.

May 17

The Story Telling Animal (Homo Narran)

Robert Martel; Service leader: Barbara Harsanyi

Our personal identity, and in particular our moral identity, is often tied to the sorts of stories and anecdotes we tell ourselves and others. Religious, spiritual and cultural identity is formed not only by our direct experiences but also by the process of relating or narrating the story of who we are.

In Celebration of the CUC

Rev. Julie Denny-Hughes; Service Assistant: Gwen Armshaw

Just as we individuals are constantly changing at the cellular level, so do the organizations we join. (Hey, they're not called organ-izations for nothing!) The AGM will follow the meeting.

May 31

Why All the Sunflowers?

Rev. Julie Denny-Hughes; Service Assistant: Nick Cardone

This is the annual Flower Communion service. We honour the life of Norman Capek and sing all the flower songs in the hymnal! Bring buds, blossoms, and bunches of baskets filled with warm weather.

Awesome Auction, Saturday, May 9 – Silent auction viewing at 5pm, Dinner at 6pm, Live auction at 7pm

AGM Sunday, May 24 after the morning service. All members, including new members are reminded to attend.

Our Mission is to provide a community which nurtures personal growth, practices inclusiveness, celebrates diversity and affirms individual and collective commitment to community service and social justice
